Itinerary:

Day 1 Arrive Ahmedabad

Sabarmati Ashram (Gandhi Ashram)- SIGHTSEEING

Sabarmati Ashram is the biggest tourist attraction, located on the tranquil and serene stretch of Sabarmati River in Ahmedabad. Once the residence of Mahatma Gandhi and his wife Kasturba, it was also referred to as the 'Gandhi Ashram', 'Mahatma Gandhi Ashram' and most importantly, 'Satyagraha Ashram' as Gandhi began the famous 'Dandi March' from here. The Mahatma Gandhi Ashram has a number of other buildings within its bounds. The most famous among them is the museum 'Gandhi Smarak Sangrahalaya' which has some of Gandhi's personal letters and photographs on display. Other buildings and sites within the Gandhi Ashram known as Nandini, Vinoba Kutir, Upasana Mandir, and Magan Niwas.

Siddi Sayed Mosque- SIGHTSEEING

Siddi Sayed Mosque is one of the most photographed monuments, and an iconic landmark in Ahmedabad. Famous for its unique window designs, it was built in 1573 towards end of the Gujarat Sultanate, under the Mughal rule. The carved jaalis in the windows of the western wall are known worldwide. The major highlight of this mosque catches the attention of almost every tourist is the lattice work that resembles the famous 'tree of life' motif with intertwined trees and foliage. Logo of the prestigious educational institute, Indian Institute of Ahmedabad, is based on this motif too. The carvings look like fine lace filigree work, well appreciated as it has been done with excellent delicacy.

Adalaj Stepwell- SIGHTSEEING

Adalaj Stepwell is located in the village of Adalaj and built in 1499 by Queen Rudabai, this stepwell served as a place for relaxation for pilgrims and caravans in the earlier years. It was constructed in Indo-Islamic architectural style, with the belief that villagers would visit the well to collect water, offer their prayers to deities carved on the walls and rest for some time. The walls are beautifully carved with scenes of women churning buttermilk, kings, dancers and musicians. Since direct sunlight does not reach the interiors of the stepwell or vav, the temperature is apparently six degrees cooler than the outside. A unique feature of this stepwell of Gujarat, that this is the only one with three entrance stairs.

Akshardham Temple- SIGHTSEEING

Akshardham Temple is one of the largest temples in Gujarat dedicated to Lord Swaminarayan and is the best example of contemporary architecture and style, built using 6000 tons of pink sandstone. It is considered a place of education, enlightenment and in a way entertainment, where more than 2 million people visit each year. The major attractions of this majestic temple are its 10 story tall golden idol of Swaminarayan Mystic India (a film on an incredible journey of an 11-year old child yogi called Neelkanth) the light and music show (Sat Chit Anand Watershow) and audio animatronic shows.
